66th Annual
Women Day Tribute

As Women of Faith who are Anchored in Hope, we thank God for sending His power and anointing for 66 years. On this day, We Come to Have Church. We are not here to entertain anyone. We've just come to lift up the name of Jesus.

Lord You Are Good and your mercy endureth forever. As we enter your gates of thanksgiving and surrender our all, we pause to wonder Is Your All on the Altar of sacrifice laid. For we long for peace and sweet rest as we lift up praise knowing He Reigns. God's done so much for us, and is worthy of all our praise. I Want to Say Thank You.

He is a Wonder church. Have you tried Him? Do you know Him? I know Him as a healer. Some know Him as a provider. Others know Him as a lawyer. What He has done for some, He will do it for all. We dare you to try Him and see Him do it.

LaRosa Mae Guillory

Pleasant Green Baptist Church

Sulphur, Louisiana

Rev. James Gatewood, Pastor

LaRosa Mae Guillory is a dedicated educator, author, and lifelong servant leader within her church and community. She has been a faithful member of Pleasant Green Baptist Church for 48 years. Her commitment to ministry is reflected in her many roles, including Deaconess, Sunday School Teacher, Gospel Choir member, Praise Team, President of the PEARLS Women's Group, and Program Facilitator under the leadership of Pastor James Gatewood.

LaRosa is the author of the Christian devotional Blessed Assurance, a heartfelt reflection of her faith and spiritual journey. Her favorite hymn, also titled Blessed Assurance and her guiding scripture, John 10:10, speak to her belief in living a life of purpose and abundance through Christ.

Professionally, LaRosa is an educator with the Calcasieu Parish School Board, where she has taught Business Education courses for 20 years. She holds a Master of Arts in Teaching from McNeese State University and is passionate about empowering students with the knowledge and skills needed for success in both academic and professional settings.

LaRosa shares her life with her loving husband, Isaac Guillory and their two daughters, Meagan and Marissa. Her life is a testament to faith, family and service, and she continues to inspire others through her work, worship, and unwavering commitment to her community.
