June's Fulfillment Hour Lessons
Unit 1: God is Just and Merciful

The study this quarter focuses on justice as presented in the New Testament. Justice is portrayed as a primary characteristic of God's nature. Man is called to emulate God's justice toward one another.

This first section includes four lessons that remind us that human interpretations of the Law must not conflict with mercy and justice as acted out in our daily lives.

June 3th – "Justice and Sabbath Laws" (Matthew 12:1-14)

- ⇒ Central Truth: Matthew 12:7 (AMP) – "And if you had only known what this saying means, I desire mercy [readiness to help, to spare, to forgive] rather than sacrifice and sacrificial victims, you would not have condemned the guiltless."

June 10th – "Parables of God's Just Kingdom" (Matthew 13:24-33)

- ⇒ Central Truth: Matthew 13:30 (AMP) – "Let them grow together until the harvest; and at harvest time I will say to the reapers, Gather the darnel first and bind it in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my granary."

June 17th – "Jesus Teaches about Justice" (Matthew 15:1-9)

- ⇒ Central Truth: Matthew 15:8 (AMP) – "These people draw near Me with their mouths and honor Me with their lips, but their hearts hold off and are far away from Me."

June 24th – "Reaping God's Justice" (Luke 16:19-31)

- ⇒ Central Truth: Luke 16:25 (AMP) – "But Abraham said, Child, remember that you in your lifetime fully received [what is due you in] comforts and delights, and Lazarus in like manner the discomforts and distresses; but now he is comforted here and you are in anguish."

Believers are to crave one thing—the milk of God's Word. Note three points.

1. The charge is an imperative, a command: "You desire, crave, and yearn the sincere milk of the Word. And the craving and yearning are to be constant." Far too many believers crave the Word here and there, sporadically. Growth can come only as we live in the Word day by day.
2. The purpose for craving and yearning after the Word is that we may grow. The idea is that we may grow up to full salvation, until we reach full maturity.
3. The result of craving the Word of God is a most wonderful promise: we taste that the Lord is gracious. He feeds us, nourishes and nurtures us. He reveals and feeds our souls, teaching us all about

Gov. John Bel Edwards signs law restoring felon voting rights after five years

BY ELIZABETH CRISP |
ECRISP@THEADVOCATE.COM
MAY 31, 2018 - 4:29 PM

Some 2,000 felons in Louisiana will have their voting rights restored in March, after Gov. John Bel Edwards signed into law Thursday a measure that allows people who have been out of prison for five years but remain on probation or parole to register to vote.

Currently, people convicted of felonies can only regain the right to vote once they complete probation or parole, which has meant that some felons would never have a chance to vote again in their lives.

Edwards, who was surrounded by supporters of what has been a years-long effort, declined to make a formal statement at the signing and instead encouraged legislators to get back to work on passing a state budget before the special session ends at midnight Monday.

According to the Department of Corrections, about 2,200 offenders have been under the Division of Probation and Parole's supervision for five years or more – about 3 percent of the more than 70,000 people on probation or parole for felony crimes.

The passage of House Bill 265 took multiple attempts in the regular session before it passed.

"They pay their taxes, but they don't even get a chance to vote for you as their representative or any other person," Rep. Pat Smith, a Baton Rouge Democrat who authored HB265 said during a lengthy debate on the legislation. "All we're trying to do is give them the right to vote — most of them say — before they die."

The state Constitution prohibits people "under an order of imprisonment" on a felony conviction from voting. A 1976 law expanded that to people convicted of felonies and still on probation or parole.

A state appellate court in April refused to reconsider a ruling upholding the legality of the law, forwarding the lawsuit challenging it to the Louisiana Supreme Court.
