LOVING God & LOVING People

1 JOHN 4:19 - 21

EXCELLENCE IN MINISTRY • EFFECTIVE IN MINISTRY • EFFICIENT IN MINISTRY

August's Fulfillment Hour Lessons Unit 3: Calls in the New Testament

These four lessons will focus on Paul's teachings about just and merciful behaviors. Those who live the new life in Christ are called to imitate God's just and merciful nature through their actions toward others.

August 5th –“God's Justice” (Romans 2:1-12)

⇒ Golden Text - Romans 2:10-11 (NLT) – “But there will be glory and honor and peace from God for all who do good - for the Jew first and also for the Gentile. For God does not show favoritism.”

- ◇ Facts: to see that God's judgment is always according to truth.
- ◇ Principle: to fit in with God's plan as well as we can as He enables us.
- ◇ Application: to live daily aware of God's justice and our place in His plan.

Every well-doer is to be rewarded, both Jew and Gentile. No well-doer shall be exempt or overlooked. “Every man that worketh good” shall receive...

- Immortality
- Eternal life
- Glory
- Honor
- Peace

August 12th – “Global Economic Justice” (2 Corinthians 8:7-15)

⇒ Golden Text: 2 Corinthians 8:9 (NLT) – “You know the generous grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. Though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, so that by his poverty he could make you rich.”

- ◇ Facts: to show us that God wants us to share with those who are in need.
- ◇ Principle: to remember that we can help others in practical ways as the Lord enables us.
- ◇ Application: to establish a mind-set of giving from a Christian and godly perspective.

The point is this: since Christ willingly sacrificed so much to help us, we ought to sacrifice to help those in need. Just as Christ gave everything for us when we were in desperate need, so we are to give everything to meet the needs of those who are desperately lost in this world.

August 19th –“Loving and Just Behavior” (Romans 12:9-21)

⇒ Golden Text: Romans 12:9 (NLT) – “Don't just pretend to love others. Really love them. Hate what is wrong. Hold tightly to what is good.”

- ◇ Facts: to show us a clear picture of genuine Christian love.
- ◇ Principle: to accept God's Word as the only reliable source of instruction in living the Christian life.
- ◇ Application: to set our minds on living according to His Word.

Believers are to love sincerely without hypocrisy. It means that a believer should not just say “I love you,” but they should actually love. He sincerely loves; he honestly and truthfully loves. The believer must never pretend, be hypocritical, play-act, or have an ulterior motive when dealing with others. He must show love and respect, interest and attention, care and concern; but he must not show it from an impure motive. There are four very practical ways the believer is to demonstrate his love for other brothers.

- 1) The believer is to love by hating evil.
- 2) The believer is to love by cleaving to that which is good.
- 3) The believer is to love by loving his brothers in Christ, by being kind and affectionate toward them.
- 4) The believer is to love by giving preference to other believers.

August 26th –“Practicing Justice” (Colossians 3:5-17)

⇒ Golden Text: Colossians 3:12 (NLT) – “Since God chose you to be the holy people he loves, you must clothe yourselves with tenderhearted mercy, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience.”

- ◇ Facts: to understand clearly the godly virtues presented in this passage.
- ◇ Principle: to learn that living out these virtues will honor the Lord and be a blessing to others.
- ◇ Application: to make sure these godly virtues characterize our lives.

The point is that the believer no longer has the right to overlook the needy of the world. He is now a new man, a part of the clothing of the new man is the garment of mercy. The believer is to be clothed with mercy. He is to have compassion and reach out to meet the needs of the world—reach out with all he is and has, holding back nothing so long as a single need exists.

The Promises of God in five translations

Acts 16:31 (KJV) – “And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.”

Acts 16:31 (NLT) – “They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved, along with everyone in your household.”

Acts 16:31 (MSG) – “They said, “Put your entire trust in the Master Jesus. Then you'll live as you were meant to live—and everyone in your house included!”

Acts 16:31 (AMP) – “And they answered, Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ [give yourself up to Him, take yourself out of your own keeping and entrust yourself into His keeping] and you will be saved, [and this applies both to] you and your household as well.”

Acts 16:31 (ASV) – “And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house.”

This is a proclamation of salvation—believe. Note three critical points.

- 1) The necessity of believing. “Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved” is the answer to the jailer’s question. What is not said is of extreme importance. Note what Paul did not say:
 - Saved? My good man, such is superstition, a delusion. There is nothing to be saved from.
 - Saved? Well, if you have done wrong, right it. And do the best you can from now on.
 - Saved? Go to work for God. Put your hands to the wheel. Labor and toil for God and mankind.
 - Saved? Man, don't trouble yourself about such whims. Life is too short. Live! Eat, drink, and be merry. Make the most of what life you have.
- 2) The necessity for understanding the Word of the Lord.
- 3) The necessity of repentance and baptism.

MCBC DEACONESS MINISTRY PRESENTS

Friends & FAMILY Day

Sunday,
September 2, 2018
11:00 a.m. Service

Guest Speaker:

Rev. Matthew M. Lubin Sr.
Macedonia MBC, Abilene, TX

Your MCBC Social Justice Commission was established to provide educational opportunities and programs about issues, situations, and injustices that threaten the wholeness of our people; our congregation and community. SJC works to develop a deeper understanding of and response to God's call to let justice flow like a river in both our personal and communal lives; where basic needs are met, people flourish, and peace reigns. Keeping in accordance with our goals to keep you informed of the issues that affect you and hopefully inspire you to get involved to make our communities and country bastions of justice and equal opportunity for all, we offer these following announcements.
